

Aphra Behn Conference, Seton Hall University – November 2015

The Aphra Behn Society is dedicated to encouraging and advancing research that focuses on issues of gender and/or women's role in the arts of early modern culture, circa 1660-1830. This collective seeks to promote an exchange of information and ideas among members of the various disciplines engaged in related research. With this in mind, a selection of volumes from the Archives & Special Collections Center were chosen to illustrate the preservation of earlier scholarship in a present day setting.

- Book selections for this exhibit were made by Conference President, Professor Kirsten Schultz, Ph.D. and Society President, Professor Karen Gevirtz, Ph.D., both of Seton Hall University

Please direct questions related to the conference to the current conference president, Kirsten Schultz. For additional information about the Society, contact the president, Karen Gevirtz, or consult the Aphra Behn Society Constitution.
