

AFRICAN AMERICAN LANGUAGE (AAL), EDUCATION & SOCIAL JUSTICE

Join us for a lecture by

Dr. Jennifer Delfino
Linguistic Anthropologist
City University of New York-
BMCC

How do we use language? What's a variety (sometimes called "dialect")? How does language shape/reflect/challenge our social worlds? Why does it matter? Learn about AAL as well as what linguistic anthropologists do!

For more information contact quizonch@shu.edu

20 Nov 2019

2 pm Stafford
Hall 205

Department of Sociology,
Anthropology & Social Work,
Seton Hall University