

BIO--

LYLE E. LAUTERBACH, Senior Technical Analyst,
Taxpayer Advocate Service - Office of Systemic Advocacy

Seton Hall University graduate 1973 (BA- Government)
Post Graduate Study at Montclair State University (Accounting emphasis)

IRS Collection Division 9/1973-2/1992

Held various field Revenue Officer- Field Collection positions,
Also Classroom & OJI Instructor
Member of Director's Speakers Bureau

Entered Management Cadre 1988; held various Collection management positions, including Field Grp Mgr & Collection Staff Assistant.

IRS Problem Resolution Officer/ Local Taxpayer Advocate 2/1992- 2009

Became NJ Problem Resolution Officer Feb.1992 which became NJ Taxpayer Advocate in1998.

After IRS Restructuring Act in 1999, Selected the first Local Taxpayer Advocate for New Jersey in 2000. Served in that position until December, 2009.

TAS Headquarters 2009-present/Senior Technical Analyst

Since December 2009, work for TAS Headquarters as Senior Technical Analyst in Systemic Advocacy. Primary focus Collection Activities.

Work Systemic Projects that involve multiple taxpayers.
Frequent contributor to NTA Annual Report to Congress.

Participant in various practitioner outreach seminars, including the North Jersey & South Jersey Working Together Symposiums.

(Updated 12/2017)