Main Line Health System

mainlinehealth.org

“The Main Line Health System vision is to provide a superior experience for our patients, employees, physicians and the community we serve. Our on-going commitment to excellence is seen every day in the care we provide for you and your neighbors. For years, our physicians, nurses and other health care professionals have provided a comprehensive range of health services. Looking ahead, as the capabilities and public expectations of health care expand, we are committed to ensuring that our care reaches more people with more services in the most cost-effective manner—and with the same heart-felt dedication to quality, compassion, service and mutual respect.”

Jack Lynch President and CEO, Main Line Health

Founded in 1985, Main Line Health® is a not-for-profit health system serving portions of Philadelphia and its western suburbs. At its core are four of the region’s most respected acute care hospitals—Lankenau Medical Center, Bryn Mawr Hospital, Paoli Hospital and Riddle Hospital—as well as one of the nation’s premier facilities for rehabilitative medicine, Bryn Mawr Rehabilitation Hospital.

Main Line Health also includes:

- Mirmont Treatment Center for drug and alcohol recovery, one of the Northeast region’s leading addiction treatment facilities and one of several uniquely designated behavioral health centers at Main Line Health;
- HomeCare & Hospice, which brings to patients at home a coordinated array of health services and products, including skilled home health care, hospice, home infusion services, extended home care, and respiratory and home medical equipment;
- Main Line Health Centers, located in Broomall, Collegeville, Exton and Newtown Square, including primary care doctors, specialists, laboratory, radiology, rehabilitation and other outpatient services;
- Lankenau Institute for Medical Research, a non-profit biomedical research organization on the campus of Lankenau Medical Center, dedicated to advancing an understanding of the causes of cancer, diabetes and heart disease to help improve diagnosis and treatment as well as prevention.

Philanthropy

Each year, Main Line Health receives thousands of charitable donations, both large and small, from the community. Many people give to the Annual Fund, or make special gifts to projects such as capital campaigns for new facilities and technology, or choose to make planned gifts, such as bequests in their will or a life-income gift to establish an endowment in an area of their interest. Employees and physicians are also key contributors. In fiscal year 2015 employee giving generated $507,103, with 24.4% of employees participating. In addition, physicians made donations totaling $641,914. These gifts help to ensure that Main Line Health continues to provide the highest quality and most compassionate health care possible.

Administrative Fellowship Program Overview

“The Fellowship Program at Main Line Health provides a unique experience to emerging healthcare leaders. Coming from a fellowship program myself, I take the program seriously, and I am fully dedicated to providing the fellows with experiences that will not only enhance their skills but to develop new ones to fully arm them for the future challenges of healthcare.”

— John J. Lynch

President and CEO, Main Line Health

Since 2007, Main Line Health's Administrative Fellowship has been providing recent graduates the opportunity to join Main Line Health's administrative team and gain practical, hands on experience in a suburban, community-based health system. Over a 12 month period, the Fellow will have exposure to a wide range of projects and opportunities in which they will gain exposure to areas such as corporate structure, quality, performance improvement, marketing, finance, front line operations, and high-level strategic planning. The Fellow will explore various project opportunities with Senior Executives and leaders across the system, working with his/her preceptors in the selection of project work to align with the Fellow's goals and the organization's needs. These projects fine tune and develop the Fellow's leadership skills, interpersonal communication and decision-making skills. In addition to project work, the Fellow will attend Senior Management and Board meetings, which will aid in the understanding of a complex health care system. Preceptors include the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) of Main Line Health and the President of Riddle Hospital.

PRECEPTORS

John J. (Jack) Lynch III has served as president and CEO of Main Line Health since 2005, providing executive leadership to suburban Philadelphia's most comprehensive health care system. During his tenure with Main Line Health, Lynch and his leadership team have been credited with strengthening the organization's commitment to patient quality and safety and enhancing the technology necessary to support significant advances in those areas. He has also fostered a period of expansion, including the addition of an acute care hospital and two health centers to better serve the needs of the Main Line and western suburban communities, and has cultivated an employee work environment that has garnered recognition from several independent rating organizations.

Prior to joining Main Line Health, Lynch served nearly 20 years as an executive with the St. Luke's Episcopal Health System in Houston, Texas, where he advanced to the position of Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer for the system, as well as CEO of the system's flagship facility, St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital. While residing in Houston, Lynch served on the boards of a wide variety of professional associations, including the Texas Hospital Association, the Greater Houston Hospital Counsel and the United Way.

Gary L. Perecko joined Main Line Health as president of Riddle Hospital in March 2009. With more than 20 years of executive health care experience, he came to Main Line Health from Frankford Healthcare System, where he served as chief operating officer (COO).

As president, Perecko focuses on continuing Riddle's mission to deliver a superior patient experience. Under his leadership the Hospital will work to enhance the quality of care and patient satisfaction and provide outstanding services in the region.

Prior to his role at Frankford, Perecko served as president of St. Joseph Regional Medical Center in South Bend, IN. He was also COO of Jefferson Health Services, Pittsburgh, PA, and executive vice president of its parent, South Hills Health System. Additionally, he was president and CEO at Greater Canonsburg (PA) Health System.
